DEATH SAVES

I would rather make a new friend than a new enemy.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

I idolize a particular hero of my faith and constantly refer to that person's deeds and example.
Thinking is for other people. I prefer action.

IDEALS

I was supposed to be the next great sports star! I miss my family, my coach, my team.

BONDS

I get bored easily. When am I going to get on with my destiny.
I'm a born gambler who can't resist taking a risk for a potential payoff.

I NEED SUNGALSSES!

I also need to understand my morningstar is too heavy and I need a DEX weapon

ATTACKS & SPELLCASTING

-Warden's Grasp- At 1st level, as a bonus action, you can use the force of your daunting presence to ensnare nearby enemies into combat. Until the beginning of your next turn, you can't move, and each Large or smaller creature you choose within 5 feet can't willingly move away from you unless it first takes the Disengage action.
-Titan Fighting - You gain a +2 bonus to melee weapon attack rolls you make against Large or larger creatures.
-Warden's Mark- At 2nd level, you can use your bonus action to mark a creature you can see within 30 feet. While a marked creature is within 5 feet of you, it has disadvantage on any attack roll that doesn't target you. The mark lasts for 1 minute, or until you mark another creature, become incapacitated, or die.
-Hold the Line- At 3rd level, when you use your Warden's Grasp, any creature you choose other than yourself within the effect's area gains a +1 bonus to Armor Class and saving throws until the beginning of your next turn while it remains in the effect's area.
-Darkvision-
-Grovel, Cower, and Beg-
-Pack Tactics-
-Sunlight Sensitivity-

CHARACTER APPEARANCE

Battle Dice. You have two battle dice, which are d8s. A battle die is expended when you use it. You regain all of your battle dice when you take a short or long rest, or when you roll initiative. Using Battle Dice. Once per turn, you can expend a battle die to perform a maneuver of your choice. Your maneuver options are detailed at the end of the subclass description. Saving Throws. Some of your maneuvers require your target to make a saving throw to resist the maneuver's effects. The saving throw DC is calculated as follows: Maneuver save DC = 8 + your proficiency bonus + your Strength or Dexterity modifier (your choice)

NAME

SYMBOL

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

UK Sportsball player, thinks he is going to be the next star!
Dies from kicking the ball into the goal so hard it falls down on top of him.
Vaugley familliar with isekai from a friend.
Wants to take up a lot of space - ironic given that he now is a kobold.
Will be a more down to earth character compared to the others (maybe) to be the serious man to make the silly bollocks more outlandish.
What sport is it? Silly question, that should be very clear and obvious!
My idol is Nike, Greek Goddess of champions and victory.

CHARACTER BACKSTORY

MANEUVERS
-Bull Rush- When you move at least 10 feet in a straight line and immediately make a melee weapon attack against a creature, you can use a bonus action and expend a battle die to shove the target after the attack. Add the battle die to the Strength (Athletics) check you make to shove the target. On a success, you can push the target 10 feet, instead of only 5.
-Bulwark- When you hit a creature with a melee attack, you can expend a battle die as a bonus action to brace yourself for its counterattack. The next time the creature damages you before the start of your next turn, you can roll the battle die and subtract the result from the damage dealt.
-Cleave- When you reduce a hostile creature to 0 hit points or score a critical hit with a melee weapon attack on your turn, you can spend a battle die to move up to 15 feet and make an additional melee weapon attack. You add the battle die to the attack's damage roll.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES & TRAITS

-Heelcutter- When you make an opportunity attack against a creature, you can expend one battle die to knock the creature off balance, preventing it from escaping. You add the battle die to the attack roll, and the target must make a Strength saving throw. On a failed save, its speed is reduced to 0 until the end of its turn.
-Reckless Assault- When you make an attack against a creature, you can expend a battle die to make a wild, desperate strike, leaving you vulnerable. You have advantage on the attack roll. Until the beginning of your next turn, however, attack rolls against you have advantage.
-Staggering Strike- As a bonus action when you make a weapon attack against a creature, you can expend a battle die to attempt to stun a humanoid target. On a hit, the target must make a Constitution saving throw or be incapacitated until the beginning of your next turn.
